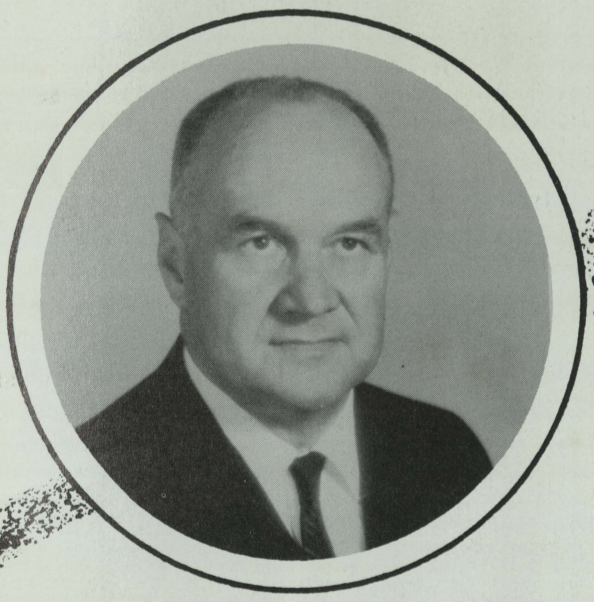
Dedication

To the community, the accidental death of Lee Bennett was a severe shock; to his family, a tragic loss, and to Lord Baltimore seniors a sad commencement.

There were pleasant recollections for those who knew him. His medium stature, his brown eyes and hair, his engaging smile blended into an attractive appearance from which emanated a winsome personality and a friendly spirit.

With feelings of grief, we, the class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-Four, dedicate this issue of THE EAGLE'S NEST to Lee Bennett.

Superintendent's Message



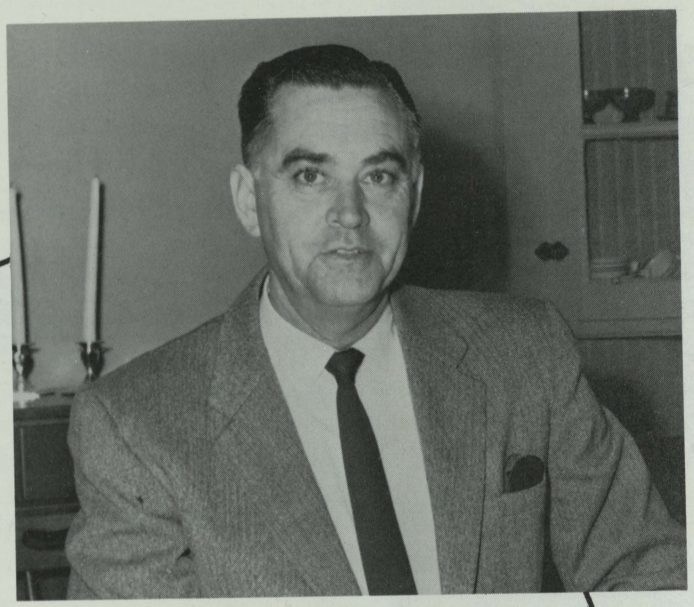
It is very likely that there are some among you who have the ability to become great scientists, doctors, engineers, or leaders in our society. Only too often people with these abilities fail to use them.

Let this be your challenge today! Will you use your talents and abilities to make this a better world than the one you inherited, or will you be content to take as much as you can and give very little in return? Will you be able to say that this is a better world because of your having lived here, or will you be faced with the fact that your contribution has been very little?

By using your talents and abilities, you will be able not only to live a fuller, richer life but also to have the self-satisfaction of knowing that you have made a contribution to your fellow man.

Fred Graef

President of the Board of Education



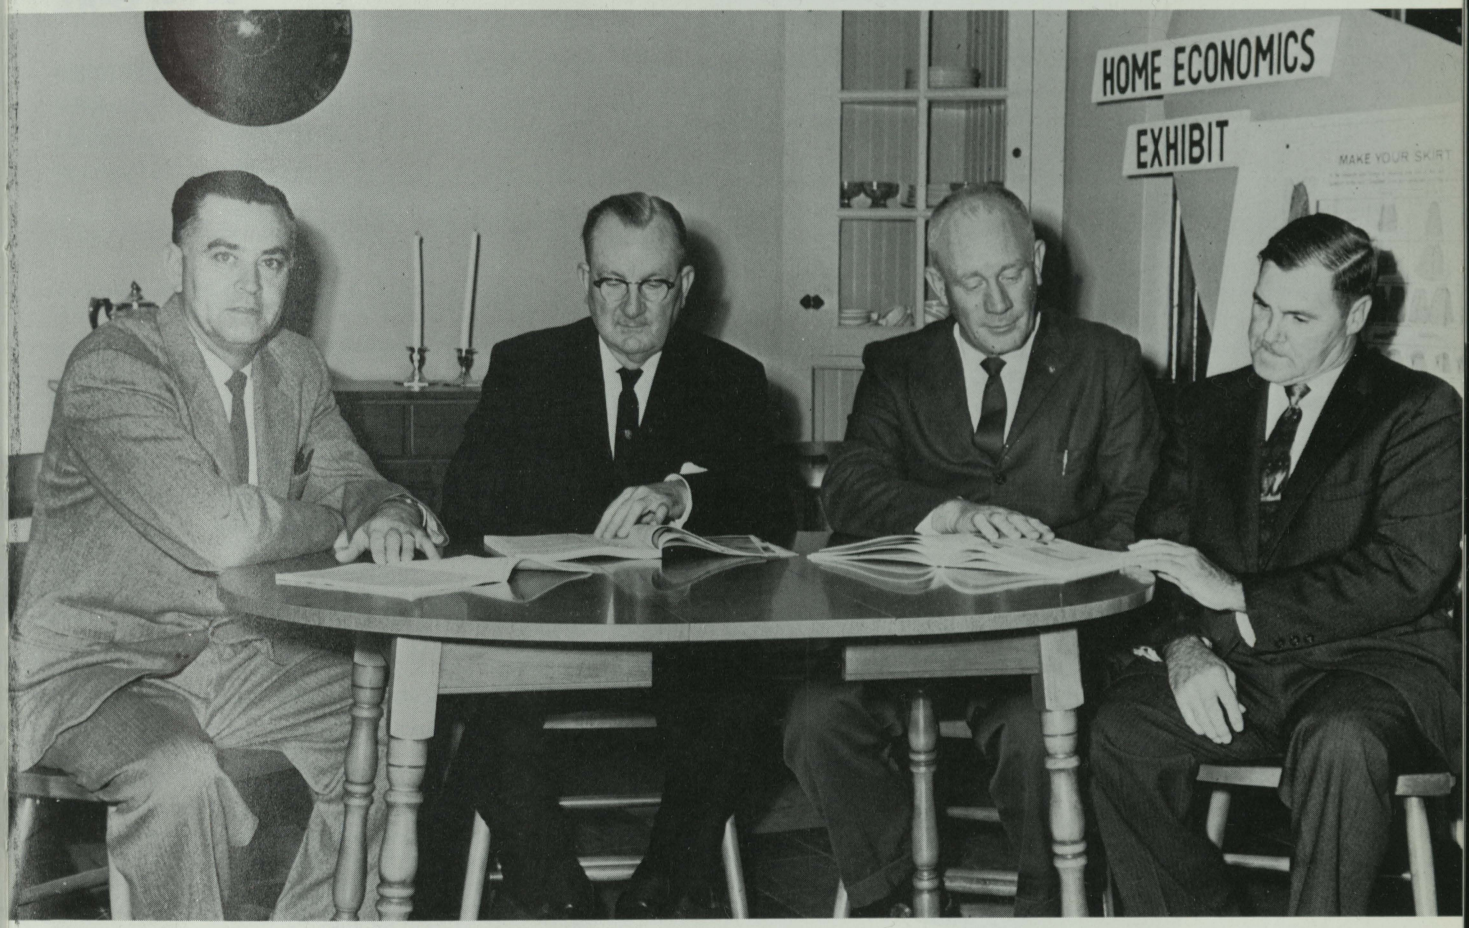
Congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 1964:

Now that you have been graduated you will be shouldering new and greater responsibility. In giving advice, Shakespeare said it best--

"This above all: to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man."

Herman Rumford

Behind the Scenes



BOARD OF EDUCATION

Meeting regularly once a month, the school board is faced with important tasks of forming school policies, keeping the school provided with necessary equipment, and helping the school to run smoothly.

A member of the Board of Education gets little recognition for many hours spent in hard work. We, the class of 1964, would like to express to all of you, who have played such a major role in our high school life, a very sincere, "Thank You."

The Class of 1964 feels that its advisors have done everything in their power to guide it through the four years of

Dear Seniors:

During the two years that I have been at Lord Baltimore, it has been my joy, and sometimes my grief, to be one of your advisors. In these years we have shared one another's joys and woes and virtues and shortcomings. Now it ends, and nought can bring it back. It is a time to be remembered, and remember you shall.

In Tennyson's IDYLLS OF THE KING, the poet speaks of the knights seeking the Holy Grail. This may be interpreted as the cup used by Christ at the Last Supper, perfection of one's self via good living, or that one high goal which we set for ourselves to achieve in life. Whatever your interpretation, seek ye the Holy Grail. It may be difficult to achieve, but if you strive hard enough, you will succeed, and the final achievement of your goal is well worth all the work that goes into it.

May the future be kind to you and bring you a life filled with happiness and prosperity.

Sincerely,

James E. Adams

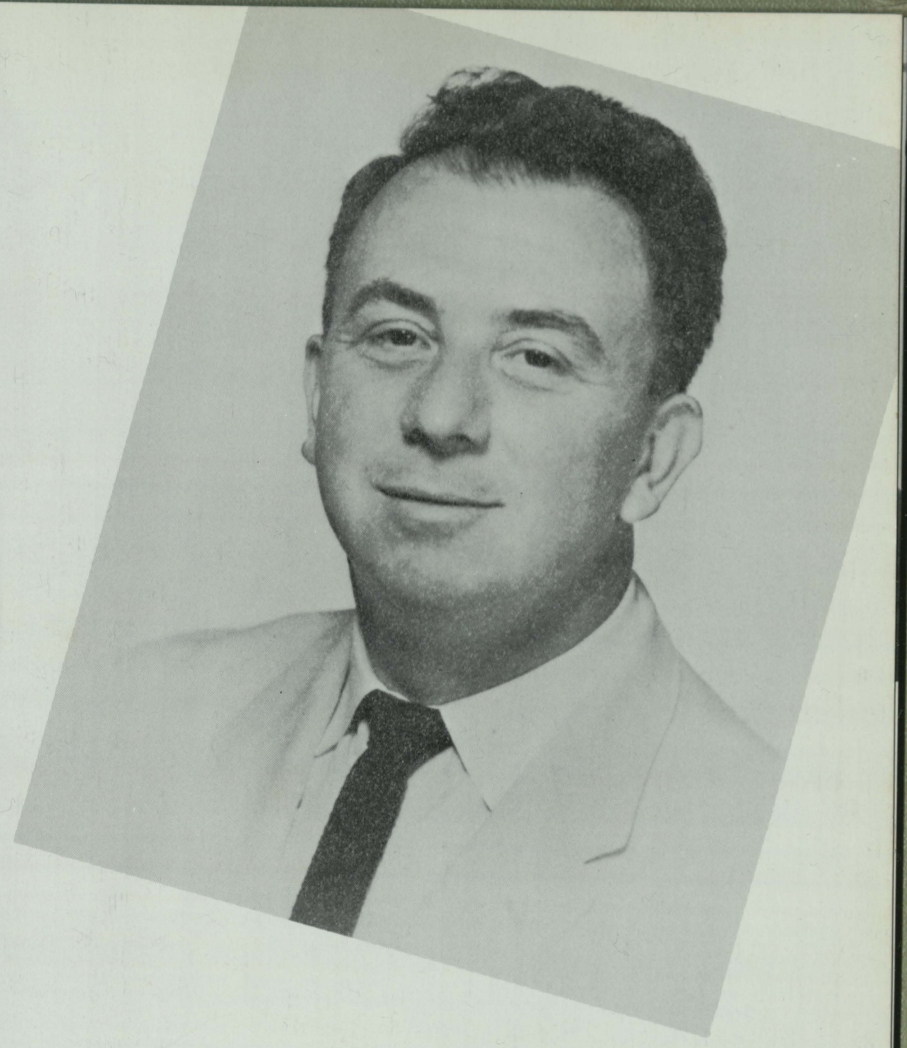
senior high school and make them all profitable and pleasant.



TO THE SENIORS OF 1964

As you leave the halls of dear old L.B., you are rolling off the assembly line as the new models. Just as cars, boats, planes, or any other product leaves the production line, you are going to be closely observed for appearance, performance, speed, accuracy, mileage, horsepower, maneuverability, "get away," and durability - how long you can stay in the race. Some of you know what is expected of new models. They just have to be better. However, some new models are "lemons" - have faults and defects. Luckily for you, these can be corrected.

So I say to you, "don't spin your wheels, don't stay in low gear, don't get stuck in reverse, but move down the "Road of Life" safely. Observe the rules, obey the signs, and don't end up in the junk yard. Instead set new records, new heights, and when you come to the end of the road, may it be said of you, "Well done, my good and faithful servants."

The Class History

On a bright September morning in 1952 fifty-one eager, but scared children entered the halls of Lord Baltimore High School. Our class was divided into two groups with separate advisors, Mrs. Gordy and Mrs. Evans. Thus began our twelve educational years at Lord Baltimore.

Our teachers during the following years led us gently, but determinedly, through this formative period and encouraged us to do our best in our studies. These years in grade school were filled with many happy occasions. One of the incidents which occurred during these years happened when Mr. Mezick and Mrs. Swadley took us to Dover. We remember well the time when one of our classmates asked Governor Boggs the direction to the restrooms. Of course, the student did not know till later to whom he was speaking.

The following years passed quickly and soon we were in the seventh grade. This was a great and confusing change for us. Our advisors were Mr. Taylor and Mr. Graden. It was during this year that we held our Halloween dance. Everyone seemed to have enjoyed himself.

Our eighth year in school was made eventful by Mrs. Betts's taking us to Philadelphia. We walked all over the city that day, and were we tired! On the way home we stopped at Barrett's Chapel, the oldest church in Delaware.

Our ninth year was a rather smooth one. This was the year that we started working and saving for our senior trip to Washington. How enthusiastic we were at having a Valentine's dance, which, to our disappointment, was a big flop!

(History con't.)

In the tenth grade we had a bazaar for which our parents worked harder than we. Of course, we did our share. This event earned us a sizable profit. We were very proud of ourselves and our parents. This was also the year that we began taking a more active part in school functions, especially sports.

Our Junior year was one of the most eventful years not only when we got into more trouble than any two classes combined but also when Mr. Adams arrived at L. B. We will never forget the fun we had at nights while we were working on the prom. We thought that we would never get completed all of the work which had to be done. However, on the night of the prom we felt a sense of accomplishment and gratification in that we had created a true "Fantasy of the Sea."

In our senior year we settled down a great deal and took on more responsibilities. This year we learned that school was not going to be a bed of roses. Our class officers were Ronnie West, president; Roger Knox, vice-president; Gerald Burbage, secretary; and Harry Dukes, treasurer.

As the months slipped by, we became more anxious at the prospect of going to Washington, D. C. At the motel we enjoyed the luxuries of a swimming pool and fine foods. The tours that we took while we were there were not only educational but also interesting and enjoyable.

As our years at Lord Baltimore draw to an end, we know that there are among our number those students who will be glad to leave school and get out on their own. Even so, others of us will sincerely miss Lord Baltimore, our friends, and teachers. We will in years to come look back and remember all of the happy and sad moments of our stay in school. There can be no forgetting. Although Lord Baltimore is a small school, still there are those who dearly love it.

In Appreciation

TO MRS. MARTHA B. JOINES, who is our teacher, counselor, and friend, we wish to express our appreciation.

Mrs. Joines, thank you for all the yearbooks of past years, for guiding us in the right direction, for providing the kind of instruction we need, and for sticking with us in spite of the little cooperation you received in return.

We complained when you demanded our best effort, but we missed you when you were out of school. We shall long remember and be grateful, because you are sincerely interested in US.

THANK YOU!

ACTIVITIES

Heigh-ho! sing heigh-ho! unto the green holly;
Most friendship is feigning, most loving mere folly:
Then, heigh-ho, the holly!
This life is most jolly!

and Honors

To Janis Coffin goes the honor of being Lord Baltimore's Future Homemaker. This Betty Crocker Award is given in recognition of outstanding work in Home Economics.

Dependability, service to the school, citizenship, and leadership are the qualities which led to the selection of Karen Fogg as D.A.R. representative.
